Political.

At the recount in Nicolet, Leduc, (Liberal), was declared elected by a majority of one.

At the election in Huntingdon county yesterday, Scriver, Liberal, was re-elected by a large majority.

The official declaration for Marquette has been further postponed, owing to irregularities in the deputy returning officers' returns.

A Childless Home.

Smith and his wife have every luxury that money can buy, but there is one thing lacking to their happiness. Both are fond of children, but no little voices prattle, no little feet patter in their beautiful home. "I would give ten years of my life if I could have one healthy, living child of my own." Smith often says to himself. No woman can be the mother of healthy offspring unless she is herself in good health. If she suffers from female weakness, general debility, bearing-down pains, and functional derangements, her physical condition is such that she cannot hope to have healthy children. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a sovereign and guaranteed remedy for all these ailments. See guarantee printed on bottle wrapper.

THE FUNERAL OF THE LATE ACTOR LAWRENCE BARRETT.

An Awful Case of Moral Depravity Unearthed by the Police of New York. A Long Criminal Trial Brought to an End—The Defendant Convicted.

NEW YORK, March 24.—The funeral services of Lawrence Barrett, conducted yesterday morning in the parlor of the Windsor hotel, by Rev. Thos. Sherman, were of a simple character, consisting only of prayers for the dead. The casket of rose wood was covered with a black cloth; two floral gifts lay on the lid, one a cross of white lillies from Mary Anderson, and the other a wreath of roses from Gen. W. W. Blackmar, of Boston. About fifty people were present during the services. The services lasted just 10 minutes, and at the close the body of the actor was taken to the Grand Central depot and placed in Woodlawn funeral car on the 11 a. m. train for Boston.

Missionaries Needed in New York.

NEW YORK, March 23.—The police to-day unearthed an almost unparalleled case of moral depravity and wretchedness. In a tenement house at 891 First avenue, they found two little girls, Maggie McNally, 12 years old, and Mary McKenna, 8 years old, lying on the floor of one of the rooms, dead drunk, and in an adjoining room were Mary McKenna's father and four women in the same condition. On a rickety bed was the McNally girl's father in the last stages of consumption and starvation. The sick man was taken to a hospital, McKenna and the four women committed, and the girls given in charge of the Gerry society.

Sandy Olds Guilty of Manslaughter.

PORTLAND, March 23.—The fourth trial of Charles (Sandy) Olds, at Hillsboro, for the murder of Emil Webber, May 10, 1890, resulted in a verdict of manslaughter. The jury at one time stood 6, not guilty; 3, murder in the first degree; 2, murder in the second degree, and 1, manslaughter. At the first trial the jury failed to agree, and in the second and third trials the jury returned verdicts of murder in the first degree. The result of the trial ends the most celebrated criminal case ever tried in Oregon.

Nobody Blamed for Gibraltar Disaster.

GIBRALTAR, March 23.—At the inquest on the second batch of bodies recovered from the wrecked steamer Utopia, Captain McKeague made a statement. He said that owing to thickness of the weather he could not calculate precisely the length of the Anson's foredeck, and ignored the ram. He did not know the fleet was in the bay. None of the men on the lookout saw the man-of-war Curlew and the condition of anchorage until the helm was starboarded. The jury unanimously decided that the cause of the disaster was accidental. One hundred bodies were recovered to-day. One hundred and thirty-two of the survivors have been returned to Naples.

Want Him Made a Minister.

OTTAWA, March 24.—Over forty lumbermen, driven in ten rigs, visited Sir John to-day at Earnscliffe, and petitioned the Premier to take Peter White, M. P., for North Renfrew into the Government. The delegation comprised Conservatives and Liberals. Sir John said he would consider the matter.

Another Liberal Seat Won.

MONTREAL, March 24.—Scriver, Liberal, has been elected in Huntingdon by over 400 majority.

AT THE DRIVING PARK.

Lovers of sport and those interested in horses were well aware that when the Victoria Jockey Club sprang into existence, two years ago, that Victorians would see some good racing at the Victoria driving park. The most sanguine, however, had no idea that a meeting as successful as the spring one undoubtedly will be, would be seen for some time to come. The Queen's plate, which was run for the first time last year, is being eagerly looked forward to by horsemen, and already several entries have been made. Alfred's "Polly Hopkins" is being trained for it by Harry Stone, besides which Doc. English's "Tim Brady" and Dr. Duncan's "Gertie" are on the track and the trainer of each is confident of his care, so that a good race will result. Several horses from up country will also enter.

Harry Stone, who has charge of the track, has got it in splendid order now and has his hands full looking after the horses under his care. Never before has there been so many blooded horses in Victoria, and when the Sound and Mainland horses join with the Victoria stock there will be a splendid array for the spring meeting. Among the horses out there are: McKeon's mare, Bowker's Jack, Chamber's Maud C, Ker's mare, Tolmie's Gypsie, Alfred's Polly Hopkins, Sayward's Christmas, Taylor's Kisber, English's Tim Brady, Duncan's Gertie, and several others, all Victoria horses. Ross, of Washington has Red Dick and Cyclone here, and others are expected from the Mainland and the Sound in a few days. Those that are there are in splendid condition, which speaks well for the manager of the track, Harry Stone, whose heart is with the animals under his care.

The fine stallions Christmas and Kisber, recently brought here, and the prizes offered by their owners as stakes for their "gets," has encouraged horse raisers, and hereafter the district around Victoria will be able to show even better stock than in the past.

VICTORIA COLLEGE FIELD DAY.

The athletic sports which were enjoyed by the pupils of Victoria College, B. C., to-day at Beacon hill, were well attended, and some some really good work was done by the boys. In spite of the chilliness of the afternoon quite a number of spectators gathered, and had it been a bright day, crowds would no doubt have assembled. The hour of finishing was too late, to admit of the winners names being mentioned to-day.

THE HUNTINGDON CONTEST.

A Hard Fought Battle—Liberal vs. Boodle and Conservatives.

Special to the TIMES.

OTTAWA, March 24—Huntingdon has been fought and won after one of the most severe fought contests that has taken place in Canada for years past. The Liberal party has come out victorious and the Tories are completely routed. By a trick of the returning officer and the Tory candidate the election in Huntingdon did not take place until yesterday. On nomination day the ministers of the crown harangued the electors and promised anything and everything if their candidate was elected. Men, money and boodle stormed the county. Scriver, the Liberal candidate, was one of the noble thirteen. In the French townships and there are 40 per cent. French, Sriver was held up to public obloquy as an equal righter. In the English-speaking townships he was called an annexationist and a Mercierite, and odds were taken against his election. Laurier spoke in the French townships, and the advantages of reciprocity were well put by him and other speakers in the English townships. Scriver declared that he would prefer losing the election than to know than any zealous friend of his would spend one cent to procure his return. This was the offset he made to the opposing boodle brigade. Well, he has been returned by 270 majority. That is the first answer the restrictionists have got, but it will not be the last.

THE GRAND TRUNK SUBSIDY.

General Manager Sergeant Denies That $2,000,000 Was Asked For.

MONTREAL, March 23.—General Manager Sergeant, of the Grand Trunk road, was seen to-day in regard to the Ottawa dispatch published in the Toronto Dispatch on the 20th, upon the subject of an alleged demand of the Grand Trunk for $2,000,000 prior to the late elections. Sergeant remarked that Sir Charles Tupper was under a misapprehension as to the facts of the case. Sir Charles had said:

The proof of my statement is to be found in a memorandum which was prepared by Hector Cameron, who was present at the interview, for the information of Sir John Macdonald. Before sending it to the Premier, Cameron submitted it to Sergeant for approval. Here, then, is proof positive of the falsity of Sir Henry Tyler's statement that a promise of a subsidy was given if the Grand Trunk would only support the government.

Sergeant had not seen the text of Sir Henry Tyler's statement, but as regards the allegation that Cameron submitted a memorandum of what occurred at the interview for his approval, no such statement was submitted. The interview took place February 25, and a copy of the memorandum was read to Sergeant March 14, and the former knew nothing of its contents until that date.

Sir Charles Tupper further says:

In my interview with Sergeant, the general manager of the Grand Trunk, so far from promising a subsidy, I positively refused to promise anything, and we actually resisted the pressure of our opponents for railway subsidies, and refused the request of the Grand Trunk for $2,000,000, for the Edmonton and Salisbury extension.

Sergeant declared the Grand Trunk did not ask for a promise of any grant, and therefore could not have been refused. The company made no request for $2,000,000 or for any sum of money. Sergeant added that he had preserved full notes of what took place at the conference February 25, but thought it only necessary to correct inaccuracies.

LOOKS RATHER SERIOUS.

BRITISH DEPENDENCIES WANT TO GOVERN THEMSELVES.

Italy Sends Ammunition to Africa. The Kaiser's Life of William the First Will Soon be Published—Prince Bismarck's Will Follow.

LONDON, March 24.—It appears that Newfoundland is not the only British American colony that is asserting a claim to manage its own affairs. The foreign office has received from British Honduras advices that would be alarming if the colonial population were more formidable. The people there are tired of being governed from Great Britain, and demand, with virtual unanimity, that taxes shall not be imposed on them without their consent. The unofficial members of the governor's council have resigned in a body, and no colonist of standing can be found to take any of the vacant seats. The colonists have sent a petition to the home government, demanding an elective assembly with control of taxation, and the English cabinet has refused to grant the petition. British Guiana is also protesting against the absolute government by crown agency, and wants something to say as to her business.

FRANCE AND ITALY NOW.

A profound sensation has been created in Italy by the report that a French house has sent a hundred thousand Remington cartridges to King Menelek, of Abyssinia, by way of Obock, as Italy considers King Menelek to be under Italian protection. This is regarded as French interference with Italian rights, and has not served to hasten the revival of friendly relations between France and Italy. A good share of the Italians, however, would like to give up African adventures altogether, although the Roman newspapers say that "when the whole truth is known," the necessity of abandoning the entire enterprise will be seen, and there will only be one more research necessary, namely, to find some one yet more foolish than ourselves who will take the charge upon their shoulders.

KAISER WILLIAM'S THORN.

A Berlin dispatch says, that the rumors of Imperial re-submission to Bismarck have greatly offended the Kaiser, who is said to be congratulating himself on having, in Gossler, got rid of the only remaining Bismarckian in the cabinet.

THE KAISER'S LIFE OF WILLIAM I.

A Hamburg correspondent says that Prince Bismarck is understood to be looking forward with considerable interest to the publication of the Kaiser's life of William I., and that upon the statements made in that publication will greatly depend the future course of the ex-Chancellor. The Prince is said to apprehend that the book will endeavor to belittle his share in the work of founding the German Empire. In that case, his friends say, the publication of his own memoirs will be hastened.

LARGER TRADE RELATIONS.

An active trade is already springing up between Hamburg and the Dardinelles under the new commercial treaty between Germany and the Porte. Several more vessels are being equipped for trade with the Turkish ports on the Levant.

BETTER IMPORT GERMANY ALTOGETHER

The services of the bands of the 2nd regiment of Royal Bavarian Infantry, the 115th regiment, and the 105th Royal Saxon Infantry regiment have been engaged for the forthcoming German exhibition in London. A facsimile of the Wartburg castle with an exact reproduction of the Martin Luther chamber is being prepared for the exhibition. The tun of Heidelberg, full size, will also be erected on the grounds.

THEY THINK IT'S A JUDGMENT.

The injury to Healy's eyes excites very little sympathy, even among the McCarthyites, who consider he has courted danger by the vindictive and malignant tone of his remarks on all public occasions, and especially his reflections on Mrs. O'Shea.

THEY'RE AFRAID OF SOCIALISTS.

The German scare about socialism has spread to Italy. The police of Leghorn are making domiciliary visits, and have already arrested 50 socialists, accused of inciting people to hostility toward the government. The arrests are kept up day after day, and have already created something of a panic in the Lucan city.

THE CHURCH IN POLITICS.

The Parnellites claim that the town of Sligo, with over 2000 voters, will go solid for their candidate. The Unionist voters, said to number 800, have resolved not to vote for either candidate. Dr. Gilhooly, bishop of the diocese, is taking an active part against Mr. Parnell.

Parnell-Healy Challenge.

LONDON, March 24.—Parnell has written a letter to the leaders of his Cork committee, stating that the tone, studied insult and untruthful character of the statements comprised in Maurice Healy's letter, with regard to contesting that constituency, debar him from communicating directly with either Healy or the friends of that gentleman. Parnell, in his letter, declared that it is impossible to expect that any agreement looking to a mutual resignation from Parnell, and a subsequent contest of the constituency by Healy and himself would be respected by the former gentleman for a moment longer than he deemed it expedient to stand by it. Parnell then informs the committee that he has placed his application for the Chiltern Hundreds in the hands of Nolan, with a request that it be preferred the moment Healy presents himself before his Cork constituents for re-election.

A THORNY OLIVE BRANCH.

Some Facts About the Empress Frederick's Misadventure in Paris.

The story of the Empress Frederick's misadventure in Paris is not new, but since accounts of it for the most part have been meagre and unsatisfactory the following from "Notes from Paris," London Truth, cannot fail to be interesting. "The failure of the Empress Frederick's mission," says the Truth's correspondent, marks the accomplishment of a silent revolution in upper class brains in this country. The revolt against what was called her invasion did not begin down low, but "up high", although had not "the uprising up high corresponded to a deep rooted feeling down low nothing would have come of it." The trouble it seems was that the Parisian artists with three or four exceptions resented the personal application of the Empress to send pictures and sculptures to the Berlin exhibition. This will sound strange to English ears, but to the French artists, as they explain it, the application seemed to be based on the assumption that the flunkey sentiment which reigns at courts and in servants' hall was paramount in studios." "Had a delegation of artists representing artists only been sent here from Berlin to secure artistic works for the Berlin exhibition, there would have been no loss of dignity in complying with their requests. Or had feminine influence been exerted by, say, a delegation of lovely models, actresses, and operatic ladies, they could have met the artists en camerade on a common ground of artistic sympathy. A fraternal lunch at the Lion d'Or or some other picturesque "tavern," a soiree at the Ministry of Public Instruction and Cults, and a gala representation at the opera, would have given all the necessary prestige to their mission. Everything would have been for the best, and William II. could have feasted his eyes at Berlin upon the masterpieces of the French studios.

The French admit that the Empress is an excellent woman, but they remarked that she wanted "lightness of touch," but how could she "have it seeing she has lived so long in Berlin in a narrow circle of admirers and dependants who see the stamp of perfection in everything she did." But this was not the sole cause of the trouble. "Russian influence" was one, for instance. "The other was the lot of artistic faiseurs. They were her pilots. These gentlemen just knew enough of art to be successful brocanteurs, and are hated by the artists because they "Bear" with a view to future "Bull" operations. Like all worthless persons, they are fussy and officious, and pounced upon the opportunity to advertise themselves in connection with the Empress. What, apparently the Empress should have done, being charged to offer the olive branch, would have been to have gone to some dignified family hotel, where she would have been on neutral ground, and there received the spokesman of the artists who were to have brought her their formal promises to exhibit at Berlin. The French in some respects are the most ceremonious people in the world, and have peculiar notions of dignity. The chez soi is foremost among them. It seemed astounding that an Empress should receive a solemn deputation in behalf of forty artists chez les Rothschild," which to translate means, the home of the Rothschild. The Rothschilds were honorable enough, but according to French notions, the Empress, to do full honor to the painters should have been chez elle, should have had a home of her own, in other words should not have been the guest of anybody. Truth's correspondent further tells us that the Italian government watched with as much interest as the Russians the Empress' attempts to get round the French. Both were satisfied that her cajoleries had a political bearing. No doubt they had. As Italy is being ruined by the Triple Alliance, and wants to slip from it, she would have been sorry indeed to have witnessed a return to the Ferry-Bismarck entente, which would have secured a free hand to France in Tripoli, and elsewhere in the Mediterranean. Her fears on this score must be now at rest. There is no possibility for cordial relations between France and Germany so long as the latter holds Alsace-Lorraine. "The Empress never saw the remarks about her in the French papers until quite towards the end of her visit. It would have been hard to show them to her, they were so venomous. She was astounded to find that her visit to Saint Cloud (which, contrary to what has been said at the German Embassy, did take place) had given deep offence. Was not Paris bombarded as well as St. Cloud, and who thought of getting angry because she came here? She declined to agree not to go out on the last day of her sojourn as she felt no fear and saw no reason for being afraid, nobody having been rude or threatening, when she went out. It was at this juncture that she was told about what the papers had been saying. She noticed that they had treated her as a bore, spoke of her visit as an invasion."

* * * "Should the English be annoyed at the treatment the Empress met with? No, however pained or sorry they may feel. I dare say, if she had been well received here, William II. might be soon insisting on Lord Salisbury giving him another island on the Nile for a river-way to his Victoria-Nyanza estate. The trouble given to poor Lord Lyons by the Ferry-Bismarck combination utterly broke him down." The above explanation of the Empress's treatment by the French is really a gem in point of bringing to view some features of French character not generally known. The explanation, however, is altogether too thin, if in any sense intended as an apology. Such finicalness as was manifested by the French would be altogether inexcusable in barbarians, and it sharply emphasizes how thin is the veneer of French civilization. On the whole the incident is a valuable lesson to England and Germany. They cannot fail to recognize the fact that the hatred of France for Germany is irreconcilable, and that so soon as the French think they can see their way clear, they will undertake to avenge Sedan.

Misery vs. Comfort.

Misery is one result of biliousness or liver complaint. Comfort is the first result of using Burdock Blood Bitters as a remedy. Cure is the final result always obtained. We back this with the strongest proof by testimonials from reliable Canadian people.

STIMATES STILL DELAYED BY THE GOVERNMENT.

ig List Still Before the House and no Indications of a Desire to Reduce it Yet—Nothing of Importance Done Yesterday.

MONDAY, March 23.

The speaker took the chair at 2 clock.

Mr. Cotton presented a petition from e residents of Squamish district, ask- for the construction of a road.

The request was ruled out of order.

Mr. Milne moved for copies of all rrespondence respecting the opening a toll trail from the boundary line of aska, at a point north of Lynn canal own as the White pass, to Tacho ke, lying at the head waters of the ukon river, in British Columbia. He oped the government would be able to ve an answer that the matter was un- r consideration. We look at the eat region to the north, rich in many spects, not only in fur-bearing anim- s, but in gold and other minerals. he difficulty now met was the hard- ips encountered, and expense of get- g the necessaries of life. The re- orts of Mr. Ogilvie, D.L.S., and Dr. awson, fully bear out the fact that the ukon region is a very rich one. What wanted is better access to this part that miners and others will be better le to get in their supplies in order at they can go on and develop the ines; they are, under the present con- tion of affairs, prohibited to a certain gree owing to the barriers which ex- . A look at the map will show that e head of the Yukon river is ot very far from the sea coast. rom the head of Lynn Canal to the merican line is only about 17 miles, nd from this point to Jocko lake is about 35 miles, and the White ass, which is north of Chilicoot pass, 1200 miles lower and is easily acces- ible. It is hoped steps will be taken an early date to have a trail through is district, as the matter has been nder discussion for some time. The oard of Trade of Victoria by com- ittee took up this matter in 1888, and ey considered it of vital importance have a trail opened as soon as pos- ible. It is without doubt commercially f great advantage to merchants of this rovince, as at present the greater ortion of the supplies are obtained rom San Francisco and other Ameri- an cities. This would flow to the erchants of this province if we had etter communication with the Yukon istrict. If the government do not tend to make a trail into this district ut of the public funds, he hoped that ey would allow a toll trail to be ade, on a basis similar to that of the assiar trail, which proved a great suc- ess, and proved such a good venture at the government took it under their ontrol in a short time after its con- truction, besides proving a great boon the miner and opening a large and ich part of the province.

Hon. Mr. Davie introduced a bill to acilitate the sale of the site of the oyal hospital.

Mr. Smith introduced an act to amend he "game protection amendment act, 890."

Mr. Keith introduced "an act relat- g to industrial and provident socie- ies."

All these were read a first time.

Hon. Mr. Beaven moved for a copy f the report or ballot paper account ade by each provincial returning office n the year 1890, to the registrar of the upreme court, under section 125 of the election regulation act," and amend- ent.

The motion was carried.

Hon. Mr. Davie moved the second eading of the jurors' bill, the provis- ons of which have already been ex- lained.

It was read a second time without iscussion.

The school bill was also read a third me and passed.

The house then went into committee n the mineral bill and remained in ommittee till six o'clock, when it rose or recess.

EVENING SESSION.

The house resumed business at 7:45. Committee placer mines bill, Mr. Cotton in the chair.

The committee rose and reported the bill complete with amendments.

Committee provincial revenue tax bill, Mr. McKenzie in the chair.

The committee rose and reported the bill complete without amendments.

COMMITTEE SUPREME COURT BILL.

Mr. Brown said the house was aware of the strong protest from Westminster against the passage of the act in the present form. The Bar, city council and board of trade had all united in opposing the bill. If the act was passed Westminster district should be except- ed. If the other districts wanted it let them have it; but Westminster was unanimously opposed to it, and to in- clude that district would have a bad effect.

Mr. Cotton said this morning he had received a protest from a portion of the Bar of Vancouver to the same effect as that of Westminster.

Hon. Mr. Davie said they were a curious lot of professional men in those cities. He had got a communication from Vancouver this morning strongly favoring this measure, signed by all but one member of the bar. That was pre- ceded by a telegram yesterday saying they approved of the bill.

Mr. Cotton explained his protest was from one firm.

Hon. Mr. Davie continued, More at- tention should be paid to a document from all than from a part of the bar. They might say the bar of Vancouver was in favor of the bill. He could only say that the obstacles urged against the bill were purely visionary. There was no reason given by Westminster to show why the bill should not pass. Judge McCreight himself would say this bill was very necessary. There was a large district with only one supreme court judge. The government were endeavoring to get another. In the meantime the work was thrown on one man. How can those gentlemen ask this? It was not fair. They would find out that Judge McCreight, if this burden were put upon him, would not suffer it. It was riding a willing horse to death, and because he was doing his business well the bar of Westminster say he should not have help.

Mr. Kitchen said they did not want to put more work on anybody, but that another judge should go over from here. The county court judge there had already too much work to do. He hoped the attorney-general would ac- cept the amendments he had ready to put in. As far as he knew the govern- ment could have a court held there so often as practically to force another judge to live there.

Hon. Mr. Davie said that when the court of appeal sat here it was neces- sary to have all the judges here; and that was the gap the government want- ed to fill. He thought it would be de- sirable to have another judge go there; but in the meantime it was best to do the best they could.

Mr. Brown said he thought the bar of Westminster were quite as good an authority as the attorney-general. The expressed object of the bill, though not stated on the floor of the house, was to have the whole supreme court business of the province brought to Victoria. The cities were important and it was the wrong way to go about it to turn them into the status of villages. He said for his part he would take the authority of the legal gentlemen in this district on the subject, and they pro- nounced strongly against the bill. Every hon. gentleman knew there was a sectional feeling between the two divisions of the province and this bill, if forced through, would give rise to a large amount of sectional feeling. Westminster district would consider it an outrage if it was forced on them. If a provision was inserted that it should not apply to his district he would not object to the passage unless other districts objected, otherwise he would oppose it.

Hon. Mr. Robson did not know where the gentlemen opposing the bill got their inspiration. The government were working in the direction of trying to get another supreme court judge in that district. How the member for Westminster could stand up and say the opposite he could not understand. The object of the bill was to do inter- locutory work; and if there were a dozen judges they would have to come down to the supreme court in Victoria. He was sure the honorable gentleman was doing an unjust thing to impute such motives to the government. It was necessary even if a second judge was appointed. As far as Vancouver and Westminster were concerned they did not seem to know for twenty-four hours what they wanted. The bar of Vancouver last year applied for such a bill and then opposed it. They seemed to have their minds poisoned.

Mr. Brown replied—The premier said the bar of Westminster changed their minds, but they had not. Anything said to the contrary was false. The bar of Westminster never favored the bill last year. They were opposed to it last year and this. If the hon. getleman (the premier) was informed differently he was misinformed. He had particu- larly inquired into the subject. When hon. gentlemen come to him and his friends and say it is necessary to con- centrate legal work in Victoria was he to believe them or not? He objected to being told the bar of Westminster did not know its own mind. If the bill was passed the government would find the whole city knew its mind. He moved an amendment that the provisions of the bill should not apply to Westmin- ster.

Hon. Mr. Robson said that the whole thing rose from a suspicion of the bill. It was astonishing that the gentleman could make such statements.

Mr. Brown—"The hon. gentleman forgets he could send a judge to Van- couver to-morrow."

Hon. Mr. Robson—raising his hands—"That caps the climax. (Laughter).

Mr. Hall was utterly in the dark as to why there was opposition to the bill. Unless some real reason was given he would support the bill.

Mr. Brown said he had talked enough about it the other night. It was simply to make supreme court judges out of county court judges, and he said the logical result would be to establish a lot of second class supreme court judges and to centralize all the first class business in Victoria. If they were going to get more supreme court judges what was the use of making a lot of second class ones? When the bar of Westminster oppose the bill on that ground, he did not see why he should refuse to believe them. It did not fol- low he should give all the reasons he had heard in private to oppose it. It was sufficient to oppose it on the ground of public policy.

The amendment was lost.

The committee rose, reported pro- gress and asked leave to sit again.

The house rose at 11:40.

THE LAND AMENDMENT BILL.

The Colonist demurs to the assertion of the News-Advertiser, that Mr. COTTON should have credit for having improved the Land Amendment Bill. "We," says the Colonist, "were under the impression that the most important of the amendments was proposed by the Leader of the Government." Granting this to be true, why, we ask, did not the Leader of the Government incorporate his ideas into the bill before it was brought down to the House? Why should the Premier permit a strictly Government measure to be brought down to the House crude, incomplete, dishonest? Is it that he might have the pleasure of making amendments? The public will not so look at it. The Land Amendment Bill, as first brought down to the House was a disgrace to any government, and the fact that the Premier should have caused it to be amended does not mitigate the turpitude of the thing. In cases where the Government brings down a bill full of brazen jobbery, the true policy of the Opposition, from a party standpoint, would be to refrain from offering amendments, and simply offer formal protest. The passage of such a bill as the amendment to the land act in the condition it was brought down to the House, for it may be depended upon the Government left to themselves would not have amended it, would have confirmed in the minds of the people the suspicion that the Government were in the hands of monopolists. In other words, the Government would have hanged themselves in the plenitude of the rope given them. When the Government deliberately offers to cut their own throats it is, perhaps, bad policy to put impediments in the way. If the land bill passes, and there is any virtue in it, the credit should be with those who opposed it. But they will get no credit. The bill is a Government measure, and though every amendment to it originating with the Government shall have been in the nature of making virtue of necessity, they will prate of these amendments as the emanations of pure motives, and what is more they will find people who are foolish enough to believe it.

But when we come to some of the accounts in detail, the items of expenditure are striking. Take the Montreal agency for instance. Under the heading of services we have:

Daley, J. J., agent, salary	$1,200 00
" " board at Ottawa	4 25
" " inspection pauper childr'n	20 00
Garley, Mrs., cleaning office 12 mos.	48 00
Hoolahan, John, 365 days at $2	730 00
McNichols, W., " " " $2.50	912 50
McRobie, Mrs., matron, one year	200 00
Riegnbal, A., 365 days at $1.50	547 50
Total	$3,792 25

The additional items of the Montreal account are:

Blacklead, brushes and duster	$ 1 80
Brooms and towels	3 35
Cleaning yard and snow	2 25
Cleaning and putting up stoves	1 75
Coal, 15 tons at $6	90 00

Rent of office one year	400 00

Items under $1.50—3	3 75
Stove and fittings	20 00
Subscriptions to 6 papers	19 30
Telegrams	149 95
Water rates	17 10
Wood 2½ cords	10 00
J. J. Daley's cab hire	386 75
Total	$1,223 47

Commenting on the above the Herald observes, that anybody can see that many items in the list are an absolute waste of public money, having as much connection with bona fide immigration service as an expedition to Greenland. There is one thing to be said in favor of the Immigration Bureau as against the Senate, it does not seem to be connected with a laundry.

NAVAL PROMOTION FROM THE RANKS.

An "earnest appeal on behalf of the rank and file of the Royal Navy" is being circulated in England for signature. It urges that promotion from the ranks should be established in connection with the proposed increase in the number of lieutenants. Not only would this be an act of justice, but the cost of transforming a cadet into a lieutenant—£1,200—could be nearly all saved by commissioning warrant officers, recommended for promotion and who have performed lieutenant's duties, after six months' college training in tactics and navigation, followed by a competitive examination. This change would, it is argued, also stimulate recruiting and thus solve the present difficulty of obtaining a sufficient number of men for the naval service. Here is a hint for Mr. FULLAM to make his proposed naval reforms still more popular with the rank and file. This appeal in England to public opinion is the result of the failure to directly interest Parliament in the scheme. The British service papers favor the idea of promotion from the ranks for the navy, but the Army and Navy Gazette thinks promotion should be opened to the bluejackets and not confined to warrant officers. "There is no reason," it says, "why a bluejacket, if he shows himself competent to do so, should not command a battleship, just as rankers in the army have held high command; but this could not be the case if he only steps on the first rung of the ladder after he has held a warrant for a few years. * *

The United Service Magazine for February has a symposium on the question whether commissions should be given to naval warrant officers. Admiral the Earl of CAN WILLIAM thinks that the precedents of NELSON'S day are out of date. "We now require a much higher education and more accomplishments for a lieutenant far beyond the attainmea of any warrant officer." Admiral SIR EDWARD FANSHAWE objects because "warrant officers are not adapted by youth or training to enter upon this career with benefit to the service." Admiral Sir GEORGE KING RICHARDS objects for similar reasons, and Admiral Sir J. E. COMMERELL answers "emphatically. No, though cases may occur where a most gallant warrant officer might get a commission and that is provided for." Vice Admiral Sir W. HUNT-GRUBBE objects on social grounds. "It would in time republicanize the Navy, a most undesirable thing to do." Better "offer commissions to the young officers of the large steamship companies." There are exceptional seamen who would make good officers, "but they need not be sought for necessarily among the warrant officers." Rear Admiral P. H. COLOMB favors the present plan of giving special rank of lieutenant to distinguished warrant officers as at present, but is not in favor of general promotion.

Admirals Sir GEO. ELLIOT, Lord CLARENCE PAGET, L. E. H. SOMERSET and R. A. E. SCOTT, and Captain S. EARDLEY-WILMOT, on the contrary, favor the proposed innovation. Thus, the argument in favor of commissioning the warrant officers has a majority of one in its favor among these eleven high ranking representatives of the aristocratic British Navy.

It is a curious circumstance that the discussion concerning the personnel of the British navy should have its counterpart in the American navy. The young aristocrats graduated at Annapolis do not take kindly to the prospect of a plain Jack Tar being promoted to the quarter deck. Nevertheless it should be distinctly understood that Jack Tar carries an admiral's commission in his "kit." Sir W. J. HUNT-GRUBBE contemplates the republicanizing of the navy with true aristocratic horror; but the nation that refuses its sailors the chance of promotion from the ranks discounts the enlistment of that high class of men said to be so eminently desirable in the service, namely, natural ability, good moral character and pluck. What man of fair intelligence, and experiencing as such men do, a sense of high capabilities, will enter a service in which he must simply vegetate? For our part, we have no hesitation in saying, that whether as Englishmen or Americans, as Frenchmen or Germans, there seems to be a growing reluctance to pull a trigger for the country that failes to recognize and encourage promotion from the ranks.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

In a discussion in committee on the mineral act Mr. GRANT said he looked upon the ordinary seals which are attached to documents as having about as much utility as lawyers' wigs. A properly attested signature should not need a wafer to make it binding. The point, we think, was well taken.

A Brooklyn man announces that he has discovered a process for making cheap aluminum. He has made a study of the processes now employed for the extraction of the metal from the clay element in which it resides, and is satisfied that they are groping in the dark. Aluminum is extracted from clay. The clay is placed in a cylinder, where it is ground and mixed with a flux that disintegrates it. Strong currents of electricity are forced through the clay from dynamos. Aluminum has an affinity for electricity, and it follows the currents, solidities and is separated from the clay. They get about 85 per cent. aluminum. "My process," says the Brooklyn man, "is the reverse of this. I put the clay in a crucible and subject it to an inteuse heat. The clay is then dissipated with a strong current of air from a blower, and when it is all gone there will be found in the bottom of the crucible a substance which resembles slag, but which in fact is aluminum about 95 per cent pure. No other process approaches this in purity. The cost of this is comparatively trifling, and the metal can be sold at 75 cents a pound at a profit. There is a secret in the process which I cannot divulge for my own safety. It consists in the flux which is used to precipitate the aluminum. It is simple and cheap. The only expensive things I employ are crucibles and fuel. That is the trouble; there is a secret. It is to be hoped, however, that the Brooklyn man has made a discovery. Cheap aluminum would revolutionize ship building.

Kansas has sent a Farmers' Alliance man, who believes that the Customs' tariff of the United States should not be higher than fifteen per cent., to the United States Senate as a successor to INGALLS, the high protectionist. Illinois has just elected a Democrat and a tariff reformer as its senator. And so the good work goes on. By 1892 there will be a tariff reform President and a tariff reform Senate, as well as a tariff reform House of Representatives in power at Washington, and then the tariff wall will fall, not as it has grown, stone by stone, but in great masses. No wonder the protectionist press in the States is cursing the Farmers' Alliance.

MISS GUTHRIE IN 'FAUST.'

Magnificent Work Capably Rendered---See Lucia di Lammermoor To-Night.

There was some degree of disappointment manifested in musical circles yesterday when it was definitely learned that the Hess opera company had yielded to the request made upon them to play "Faust" instead of "Robert The Devil." It was urged that "Faust" had been played more than once here; that every one, or nearly every one, knew it and would not care very much to hear it again; whereas "Robert The Devil" has not been played here; the music is more catchy, and altogether its newness would prove a far greater attraction. Despite this a crowded house was drawn last evening to listen to "Faust." After Saturday's effort in "La Traviata" the reputation of the company was established. Indeed, it might be said that, after their more than standard ability, the chief characteristic of the company, one and all, from the charming prima donna, Miss Guthrie, down, was a uniformly conscientious effort to promote the general success. It has the strong recommendation of fraternal harmony and unity. Thus it was with no misgivings or fears of disappointment that the large audience awaited the rise of the curtain last evening. They looked not for a spectacular surprise, but for a substantial feast of rare music, and in expecting bread they were not rewarded by a stone.

Miss Guthrie as Marguerite far outdone herself as Violetta, although her success in that role was so pronounced. She lived her part; from the demure maiden filled with holy thoughts of things divine, wrapped in her love of things heavenly, till Cupid, in the person of Faust, knocked at her heart's door, and she opened to him all the fervor and passion of a first love, and finally in the heart-rending emotion of the death scene in the prison. It is not often that an audience is held so closely interested. Usually there is some loophole for perhaps cynical criticism, but criticism of any kind was disarmed. Miss Guthrie sang with a winning power, with a voice not merely musically correct, or sweet toned, but actuated by a masterly conception of the noble character she was portraying. It was edifying to witness her in her innocent holiness, her ingenuous awakening to the first calls of love as good to look upon, and her death scene was one of a peculiarly sorrowful, yet terrible nature. In all of these her superb voice rose and fell to the music with sweetness or grandeur of tone as the case called for.

Mr. Henri Bovet as Faust, sang, as usual, in French; but nearly everyone understood, if not what he said, at least what he meant, for his gesture was as eloquent and explanatory as language. His voice, rich and clear as a bell of silver, rang again in the upper register. It is only when actuated by some fine emotion that the real value of his voice is brought out. No second voice would suit his voice.

Mr. Mertens' baritone was heard in the role of Valentine, Marguerite's brother, and such a man, with such an appealing yet powerful voice, was just the brother to protect so good a sister. He, like the remainder of the company, won fresh and greater laurels last evening, and highly deserved was the genuine applause which burst from all parts of the house for him.

Mr. Pierre Delasco was Mephistopheles. They say the devil is not so black as they paint him. He was strongly red last night, but whether that had anything to do with reforming his character, he certainly was a very assault devil last night. He was good natured on several occasions, he was always polite to ladies, and he sang remarkably well. He wasn't at all repulsive, on the contrary he was a thoroughly attractive. As an actor Mr. Delasco is finished in his profession, and it was as much his acting as his singing that won for him such honors last night.

Taken all round the production of Faust was far above the average and ranked high among the superior productions.

Lucia Di Lammermoor is the bill for this evening. The company deserve a better, and even more crowded house, only to repay them for the unqualified pleasure they have given the Victoria public; but more particularly to hear beautiful work capably rendered. Also bid farewell to the charming Miss Guthrie.

Victoria complains of the news of the outside world getting deplorably twisted before it reaches here, but from late Australian papers, the people down there have just as much to complain of. NEWS FROM NANAIMO.

The Times Reporter's Daily Budget of News From the Black Diamond City.

NANAIMO, March 24.—It was announced yesterday that the New Vancouver Coal Co., had advanced the price of lots from $400 to $450 on account of the great demand made. While the company are selling the vacant land freely at this price it is upon the distinct understanding that purchasers will erect buildings thereon and not hold it for speculative purposes. At the present moment the Nanaimo people are turning their attention more to home property, as it is confidently expected there are big times in store for the city. There are very few vacant lots now to be had within the city limits, consequently new land is constantly being taken up.

A HARD QUESTION TO SOLVE.

The question of the population of Nanaimo is ever before the minds of the people, not only of the citizens, but the question is about the first thing the visitor thinks of asking. Many claim the city has a population of 8,000 and about 4,000 in the suburbs; however, the problem will soon be solved. Messrs. W. K. Leighton and M. Bray, have appointed a large staff of enumerators, whose duties will commence about April 6th, and the exact number of the population may exceed any of the figures guessed at. It is roughly estimated that within the past twelve months the population has increased over two thousand, and a large number of new arrivals are of a daily occurrence.

THE BOATING SEASON.

The boating season practically opened here on Sunday last, and during the past two or three days the harbor has been studded with the smaller class of sailing craft. Both boat-houses are well filled with boats of all sizes and classes, beside new ones are being made as fast as possible in order to meet the great demand that is anticipated this summer. More interest will be devoted to acquatic sports this year, and in all probability several boating clubs will be started and contests take place among them. Nanaimo harbor affords a splendid sheet of water for all such purposes, and at all times.

Y.M.C.A. SOCIAL.

A social was given in the rooms of the Y.M.C.A. last evening by the senior members of the association. The rooms were well filled, principally by ladies, while the gentlemen who desired to listen to what was going on stood outside the door. All kinds of parlor games were indulged in during the early part of the evening, which was highly amusing. This was followed by a few addresses, and an appeal was made to those who wished to join;

many responded to the request. The association has done much good in this city, since it was first inaugurated and in consequence of its growth, it has been deemed necessary that a building should be erected for their sole use as the present rooms are inadequate for all purposes. When a collection is taken up for this purpose no doubt the citizens will respond liberally.

LITTLE HAPPENINGS.

D. S. McLeod is endeavoring to match J. C. Stewart, of Nanaimo, against a man named Smith, of Vancouver, Wash., to wrestle catch-as-catch-can style for $250 aside.

It is rumored here that a round house is to be built at Wellington on the E. & N. railroad, and the one at Nanaimo will not then be used.

NELSON NOTES.

Little Jottings of Interesting News From The Miner.

The Canadian Pacific's new townsite above Sproat has been named Robson, in honor of John Robson, premier of the province. The railway grade is completed to the townsite, and the track laid across the Pass Creek bridge.

It is expected that work will be commenced next week on the railway wharf at Nelson. The delay is occasioned by the ice in the outlet preventing the timber taken out above "Bogustown" from being rafted down to the site.

"The talk of Revelstoke becoming a trade centre is all bosh," was the remark of a man who had put in part of the winter at that place. Continuing he said, "Why I saw more money in circulation in Ainsworth the three or four days I was there than during the whole month I lived in Revelstoke."

Reports from Hot Springs district are that development work is proving the claims and mines of that section to be wonders. The shaft of the United is down 100 feet and in solid ore. The Tenderfoot shaft is down 60 feet, with good ore in its bottom. The drift in the No. 1 is in high-grade carbonate ore. Altogether, the prospects of the camp were never brighter.

Spring time has come. A gentle chinook is blowing. The snow and ice are rapidly disappearing. The arrival of the Galena is anxiously looked for. As positive proof that the above assertions are correct, the thermometer did not get below 12 any night during the week, and ranged between 28 and 44 during the day.

The Davies-Sayward company's sawmill at Pilot bay is at last ready for continuous business. There are about half-a-million feet of logs in the millpond, and more in Crawford's bay. While the company is now able to fill small orders—there being about 200,000 feet of lumber in the yard—the manager expects to be able to fill any sized order by the time navigation opens.

In crossing the outlet at Nelson, on Thursday, one of Wilson's pack animals and a cargo of two quarters of beef dropped through the ice into 12 feet of water. The cargo was cut loose and the animal pulled out. Then the 200 and odd pounds of beef were fished out. Such accidents are merely episodes in the lives of the men who pioneer a country denied railway communications.

Commenting on the action of the people of Revelstoke in regard to railways in the southern portion of Kootenay, R. M. McGowan of Winnipeg, while in Nelson this week, said that in order to reach Ainsworth from Revelstoke, a distance of 200 miles, he was compelled to travel nearly 1400 miles—140 miles of the distance over a rough trail. While at Ainsworth Mr. McGowan closed the E. S. Wilson & Co. store, and it will remain closed until the affairs of the firm can be adjusted. Before leaving Revelstoke he closed the firm's store at that place. The Revelstoke store will not be reopened, but he thought that the one at Ainsworth would be as he was well pleased with the future prospects of that town.

DOINGS ABOUT DONALD.

Many Matters of Interest Gleaned Here and There by the Times Correspondent.

March 9th a vagrant was brought down from Field by Sheriff Redgrave. He will reside in the Donald lock up for a week with hard labor, to make up his mind if he will go to work as there is big demand for labor in this country.

Thursday, 19th, at the town of Golden, constable Moodie and the sheriff were arresting a Swede for indecent conduct and using obsence language, when a prominent hotel proprietor came to the rescue and tried to take the prisoner away. He did not succeed, but he received a summons to appear before the S. M. on Monday next, to answer to the charge of obstructing officers on duty. The Swead was convicted of being d. d. and fined, but for indecent exposure he was let off as the J. P. said, he ought to have been arrested before.

20th inst. Last night 5 inches of snow fell at Donald, and at Bear creek, 15 inches, which makes No. 1 train 7 hours late and No. 2, two hours and 30 minutes late, but the glass stands about 4 above freezing.

Mr. A. Kinpton is moving into his new house on the hill. It is considered the snuggest cottage between Calgary and the coast, and he is one of the oldest pioneers of Donald and considers his property safe as he is between the court house and the church.

Hard on the Baldheads.

No more will airy creatures in pink tights and brief skirts flit across the stage at the Casino. When I brought out "Poor Jonathan," said the manager, I had doubts as to the results of the innovation of the modern dress for the singers. How the public would take to dress coats and ball dresses in place of picturesque and grotesque costumes I didn't know. I find, though, that the public takes kindly to the change, for the business of "Poor Jonathan," up to date, is twenty per cent. ahead of "Ermine" and "The Grand Duchess," my principal successes hitherto. I think New York has had enough of tights, and of Eastern, Persian and Louis XIV. dresses. I have no doubt but that most operas will now fall in line with "Poor Jonathan." I have it on very good authority that Sir Arthur Sullivan's next opera will be a "dress-coat" one. Milloecker, too, has, I understand, tabooed tinsel and tights.

What are the advantages of the change? asked the reporter.

It will cause the orchestra to be more musicianly.

Why?

Because, as the eye of the audience is not dazzled, it will be necessary for the music to be better, as the ear will be more on the alert. For the same reason the libretto must be better.

Do you attribute the increase in the box office receipts to the reform in dress?

Well, I most assuredly believe that it has much to do with it. There being no suggestion of ballet or fleshings, the mother of a family cannot hesitate to bring the entire household to the theatre.

What of the bald-headed row?

That will die.

"Poor Jonathan" will appear at Victoria for two performance, in the latter part of August.

Consider This Fact.

The fact that rheumatism is caused by an acid in the blood points to the remedy Burdock Blood Bitters, which removes all impurities from the blood not only poisonous rheumatic humors but even obstinate scrofulous and cancerous taints.

"The Jersey Lily."

Is what Millais christened his famous portrait of that celebrated woman who since became familiarly known to the public by that expressive and appropriate name. In turn she has coupled her fame with that of the most celebrated toilette article in existence, as witness what she says:—

ANGLESEA COTTAGE, L.B., July 2

Gentlemen,—Altho' it is very unusual for me to use any lotions or washes, still, in answer to your request, I have tried Wisdom's Violet Cream and Robertine. The former I consider especially efficacious in cases of roughness of the skin, and I have been using it every day for the last fortnight. I have found the Robertine an excellent preparation in cases of tan, sunburn, etc., caused by exposure to March winds and a July sky.

Yours faithfully,
LILLIE LANGTRY.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when glad Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the DRAGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

WHITE ROCK, B.C.

This Townsite is situated on Semiahmoo Bay, and is the only deep water seaport between the International Boundary Line and Vancouver, B. C.

It will probably be the Mainland starting-point of the Victoria, Saanich & New Westminster Railway. It is now the outlet for the finest agricultural district in British Columbia.

The C.P.R. has made a survey of a line from Vancouver direct to this point. The Royal City Planing Mills Company has built a substantial wharf here, and has established a lumber yard, which supplies the farmers of this district.

A handsome hotel has been erected and building is going on rapidly.

Several influential and far-sighted corporations have acquired large tracts of land surrounding this Townsite.

Water front lots can now be obtained at low prices.

To introduce this property, we are placing one block of lots on the market for disposal by monthly instalments at nominal figures.

CITY AND PROVINCIAL.

LOST THEIR OPPORTUNITY.

The Vancouver Board of Trade Condemns Kootenay on the Information of an Expert.

Last summer a syndicate of Vancouver capitalists employed an expert to visit the Kootenay Lake country, and instructed him to look up a mine or a prospect that could be made a mine. On looking the district over, the expert reported to the syndicate that there was not a mine in the country; not even a prospect that looked as if it could be developed into a mine. Hence the statement, made at a recent meeting of the Vancouver board of trade, that there is not a single mine in the Kootenay Lake country. One of the members of the syndicate was in Nelson three weeks ago, and on hearing the reports from the Silver King and seeing the samples of ore brought down from that mine, very naturally felt as if that expert had robbed him of several thousand dollars. Since his departure from Nelson, the tunnel in the Silver King has reached the crosscut run from the shaft—work that proved that one mine in the lake country had over $1,000,000 worth of ore in sight. Within the last ten days an additional $100,000 worth of ore has been exposed by extending the tunnel 10 feet beyond the drift; and for every additional 10 feet that the tunnel is run in solid ore it is safe to say the owners of the Silver King have another $100,000 added to the value of their property. The dump has been cleaned out, and sinking the shaft was resumed this week. Adjoining the Silver King on the west end is the Dandy, a claim that has many indications of being to the Silver King what the Bi-Metallic is to the Granite Mountain, Montana's largest dividend-paying silver mine, once it is taken hold of by men with means. The Dandy was on the market last summer, and at figures not out of proportion to its apparent value. Work is now being prosecuted in a tunnel on the ledge, and the ore looks as well as that taken from the surface workings of the Silver King. Adjoining the Silver King and Kootenay Bonanza ground on the east is the Grizzly Bear, another claim that was on the market last summer, and which could have been purchased for a few thousand dollars. Its ore is of the same character as that from the adjoining properties, and a fair average sample from its dump assayed over $70 in silver to the ton. Parallel with the Silver King is the Iroquois, a claim that is certainly a good prospect. It was also on the market last summer, and at a price not beyond the means of even an average Vancouver syndicate. Thence westerly to the Toughnut, a distance of three miles, are a hundred or more locations, every one of them with mineral in place. Within three miles of Nelson are half-a-dozen good-looking prospects, with well-defined ledges, and ore on the dumps and in sight. In condemning this country on the report of one expert, Vancouver capitalists made a great mistake. It is now too late for them to regain a footing in the country, as the properties are all held at figures beyond their reach.—The Miner.

In Darkest Gloom.

Millions of men and women are in the dark gloom of disease. The way out is by using Burdock Blood Bitters, a tried and sure remedy for dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, scrofula, bad blood, and all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, and blood.

The Jewellery Seizure.

Mr. A. A. Clayton has been served with a writ, at the instance of Collector Milne, claiming in the neighborhood of $15,000. This sum is understood to be the amount of the fine added to the undervaluation of goods, as estimated by the customs, on the importations of the firm for the past two or three years. The matter will be settled in the courts.

Followed the Crease.

Cleverton—For heaven's sake old man what are you doing in this part of the town?

Dashaway—When I started for the office this morning I didn't notice that the blamed tailor had creased my trousers wrong and I've walked four miles out of my way.

Cleverton—Go to McCallum & Woods corner Douglas and View streets hereafter for all work in the tailoring line and avoid all such trouble. New spring goods coming in every day by express and freight.

Sabbath School Anniversary.

The Sabbath school anniversary in connection with the Gorge Road Methodist church will take place next Sabbath. Easter Sunday. There will be three services; Rev. Mr. Betts, of Vancouver, will preach in the morning and evening. The afternoon service will commence at 2 o'clock. The Sunday school children will be seated on a spacious platform erected for the occasion, and the children will give a number of recitations, and sing several pieces suitable for the day. Addresses will be delivered by the Revs. Watson and Betts, and the church will be most tastefully decorated by the ladies of the church. All are invited.

Mighty Words of Truth.

A Persian poet has said: "There is not a single dispensation of Providence which, if properly viewed, will not afford an excellent lesson. Never repine at the good fortune of others, for many there are who wish to be raised to your station."

You may not possess fame, wealth, position or honor in the world, but Providence may have bestowed upon you health, happiness and contentment, which the wealthy and those of high station often look for in vain. People of high position, wealth and fame generally have themselves to blame for any lack of health and contentment. In the hurry and worry after gold, fame and honor, their health is neglected, and ailments and troubles brought on which endanger and shorten life. They are victims of nervousness, insomnia, irritability, headache, morbidness, bad circulation and dyspepsia in its worst forms. For them there is no royal pathway to health: they must take the simple, yet effectual, remedy which their less favored fellows use—Paine's Celery Compound. It is a universal and infallible remedy, and will benefit all who use it. Reader, if you are one of the wealthy, and noted in your community, and long for health, joy and happiness, Paine's Celery Compound will give it. This remarkable preparation is as necessary for your troubles as is the rain for the dry and parched fields of the farmer.

Don't Miss Them.

In room 2, Musgrave block, Broad street, you will find the finest selection of samples for tailor-made suits shown by Edwin J. Morgan, representing his father, D. Morgan, Quebec, one of the oldest tailoring firms in Canada. Perfect fit guaranteed. m24-1w

A Short Career.

Opening Dance.

The Comus Club has decided to have another dance before the event of the season, the charity ball, and invitations are being issued for a social dance on Wednesday evening, April 1st. Those who have, during the past season, attended these dances, will be pleased to hear this, as the intermission has been a long one.

Tourist Spoons and Opera Glasses.

Mr. A. A. Clayton, of the Diamond Palace, Government street, has now completed and ready for inspection, a large stock of tourist spoons, suitable for souvenirs of Victoria. In the bowls of the spoons are etched scenes of the Gorge, Dunsmuir Castle, Mount Baker, and other pictures of Victoria scenery. He has also just received a consignment of beautiful opera glasses, in pearl and Russia leather, which are pronounced the finest ever imported to this city.

Prizes for the Pupils

The pupils of the public schools have been supplied by Messrs. Hibben & Co. with covers for their books, and that firm will give a prize at the midsummer examinations to the pupil that has kept his or her books neatest during the term. J. Savannah has offered one dozen cabinet photographs to the girl or boy that graduates first in the high school and A. B. Erskine will present the pupil graduating highest with the best pair of shoes in his store.

A Musical Treat.

In the concert to be given at the Victoria theatre on Friday evening, April 3rd, by the Weber Concert Co., Victorians are going to have a treat. The male quartette, Messrs. Barnes, Andrews, Rogers and West and Miss Anna Baume Andrew, pianist are spoken of in the eastern press, as really artistic. With the company are Master Harry Dimond, America's greatest boy violinist and Master Glenn Hall, the phenomenal boy soprano. These young gentlemen are also the recipients of complimentary notices in the press and lovers of music will do well to make an engagement to spend the evening at Victoria theatre on the evening of April third.

Public Safety.

Hon. Amor DeCosmos, invites the real estate owners of the city at the Lyceum (late Pandora street Methodist church) to-morrow evening, "to organize a committee of public safety," which committee will "apply for such legislative aid as will prevent the city of Victoria from being overwhelmed with a crushing public debt." We confess that we were not aware that we had arrived at the verge of a financial precipice, but if we have, and if Mr. DeCosmos demonstrates that a "committee of safety" is necessary to keep us from tumbling over, we feel sure that he will receive the thanks of every person. The meeting will certainly be an interesting one, and even if it should turn out to be a cry of "wolf, wolf" when there is no wolf, the discussion that will ensue cannot possibly do any harm.

Dyspepsia

Intense Suffering for 8 years—Restored to Perfect Health.

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. R. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1878 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Sarsaparilla had wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to tone up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

Removal.

Mr. Geo. S. Russell has removed his barber shop to 42 Yates street, next to W. J. Jeffrees. t.f.

Quarterly Meeting.

The quarterly general meeting of the B. C. board of trade will be held on Friday, April 3rd. Notices of motion should be sent in not later than Friday next, 27th inst.

Should be Loosened.

A cough should be loosened at once and all irritation allayed. To do this nothing excels Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. Obstinate coughs yield at once to its expectorant, soothing and healing properties, which loosens phlegm and and allay irritation. *

A Sharp Jolt.

A temporary plank crossing was laid on Yates street, near Government, some time ago, and while a great convenience to pedestrians, is considerable of a bother to drivers of vehicles, as a sharp jolt is caused when driving over the crossing, which is close upon six inches above the street level.

Stammering Cured.

Prof. E. R. DuMont, of Boston, whose success in correcting defects in speech, has attracted much favorrble attention in pacific coast cities during the past year, is at the Clarence. Those interested should call at once upon Mr. DuMont.

Will go to Washington.

Mr. F. B. Gregory, of the firm of Belyea & Gregory, barristers, who returned from Alaska on Saturday with papers in connection with the Behring sea question, leaves to-night for Washington. The papers will be used in connection with the Sayward case and the question generally.

Theatrical Briefs.

The new opera to follow the "Gondoliers" at the Savoy theatre, London, is named "The Nautch Girl," by Fred Solomon, composer of "Billee Taylor."

The Gaiety theatre company will leave London for Melbourne on March 27th. Miss Nellie Farren, Miss Silvia Grey, Mr. Fred Leslie and Charles Danby will be among the company. Their tour will extend to the Pacific coast.

The box plan for "False Friends" was opened to-day at C A. Lombard & Co.'s, and good business was done. A good rehearsal took place last night, and was very perfect.

Dr. Whetham Dead.

Dr. Whetham, a prominent and highly respected citizen of Vancouver, died on Sunday afternoon from typhoid fever. The deceased was a native of Ontario, and about 35 or 40 years of age. Having amassed a fortune in the United States, he has, since taking up his residence in Vancouver, been an active projector of enterprises calculated to develope the province. He was Vice President of the Vancouver Board of Trade, and was interested in numerous enterprises intended to develop the resources of the country. His untimely death will be sincerely deplored by a large circle of friends.

A House in the Street.

Some time early last week a two-story frame building on Douglas street was started from its foundations and pulled out into the middle of the street, the idea seeming to be that it was to be moved to some other part of the city. Evidently this idea has been abandoned, because the house still rests in the middle of the street and no one seems to take any further interest in it. As a colossal nuisance it is a success. Quite likely some day it will be moved, but at present the chance looks very slim. Just how it is that a whole house can repose on the streets for days without a word from the police, while a few dry goods boxes excite official enquiry, is hard to comprehend.

An Accident Policy.

The best Accident Policy is to keep Hagyard's Yellow Oil on hand. As a pain cure it is unrivalled, while for croup, sore throat, quinsy, rheumatism, neuralgia, etc., its results are often almost magical. Used externally and internally. Price 25c.

The British ship Glenfinort, 231 days from Glasgow for 'Frisco, is believed to be lost, but a young man who was coming out on her has telegraphed from London that he is all safe, and it is presumed that the ship has been wrecked and the passengers and crew saved.

NASAL BALM

It is a certain and speedy cure for Cold in the Head and Catarrh in all its stages.

SOOTHING, CLEANSING, HEALING.

Instant Relief, Permanent Cure, Failure Impossible.

Many so-called diseases are simply symptoms of Catarrh, such as headache, partial deafness, loss of sense of smell, foul breath, hawking and spitting, nausea, general feeling of debility, etc. If you are troubled with any of these or kindred symptoms, you have Catarrh, and should lose no time in procuring a bottle of Nasal Balm. Its warmth in first, neglected cold in head results in Catarrh, followed by consumption and death. VERNON, VERNON

THE TERMINUS OF THE

SHUSWAP & OKANAGAN RAILWAY

Situated in the Heart of the Famous Okanagan Valley.

THE RAILWAY CENTRE OF THE INTERIOR

The Shuswap & Okanagan Railway is now under construction, and will be completed and in Operation to Vernon next Summer, 1891.

The Okanagan & Kootenay Railway Co. obtained a charter (with land grants of 20,000 acres per mile) to construct a railway from Vernon to Sproat's Landing, via the Coldstream Valley and Cherry Creek Mines.

A charter will be applied for at the next session of the Local Legislature to construct a Railway from Vernon south to the International Boundary, to connect with the American railway system.

This is a great chance to make money, as Vernon, being in the heart of the most extensive agricultural district in the Province, will undoubtedly become a large and flourishing city.

Arrangements have been completed with responsible parties for publishing a good weekly paper at Vernon, to commence business early in the new year. This paper will be circulated by the company in all parts of the world.

A Large Hotel will be erected early next spring, and plans for same are now ready.

PLANS OF TOWN-SITE ARE NOW IN ALL REAL ESTATE OFFICES.

A large number of lots have already been sold, and most of these will have buildings erected on them early next year.
Special Inducements are offered to builders. See price list. Free sites will be given to parties establishing industries.
Financial assistance will also be given to responsible parties engaging in legitimate enterprises.

ADVANCE IN PRICES.

The Company will advance prices of all central lots early next month. Intending purchasers should not delay selecting lots now in order to obtain the benefit of this advance.

Vernon is situated in a pass commanding and making tributary to it the whole of the famous Okanagan Valley and its tributary valleys, the grazing country of the Lower Nicola, the mining camps of Rock Creek, Granite Creek, Keremeos, Okanagan and Monishee Mountain, the placer diggings of Cherry Creek and Siwash Creek. It is impossible to get to any of the above places without first going through Vernon.

The opening of the Shuswap & Okanagan Railway next summer will flood this favored country with land and mining prospectors, &c., and will give a great impetus to the farming, fruit growing, grazing and mining industries. Several important industries are projected and will likely be started in Vernon next year.

The best advice we can give intending purchasers is to go and see for yourself. The C.P.R. to Sicamous, Stage from Sicamous to Vernon. Leave Vancouver on Mondays or Fridays, arrive Vernon Tuesday or Friday evening.

Coming, Coming, Coming! What? A Garden of Eden

The choicest spot anywhere around Victoria to make a home is undoubtedly in the lovely valley of Cedar Hill. FIR GROVE is situated between the Mount Tolmie and Cedar Hill Roads, with a frontage on both, within one mile from the city. The land is all planted with the choicest varieties of apples, pears, plums and cherries, and, as is well known, Mr. Child has expended a large amount of money and care in the planting of the trees. The ground has all been well under-drained, the soil is of the richest, and for gardening purposes no finer spot exists. The property is now in the hands of surveyors, and will be on the market in the course of a few days. As negotiations are in progress to extend the electric railway past this property, now is the time to buy, as prices will naturally advance with the advent of the railway.
